

How much is the Federal Debt?
What are the Government's unfunded promises?
What does this mean for my family?

Join United States Senator George LeMieux, former U.S. Comptroller General David M. Walker, and Concord Coalition Executive Director Robert L. Bixby for a discussion on the fiscal future of the United States. Senator LeMieux, in conjunction with Stetson University and the University of Central Florida are pleased to present:

The Fiscal Solutions Forum

Wednesday, August 11, 2010

11am - Orlando at the University of Central Florida, Downtown Campus
&
5pm - Tampa at the Stetson University, Tampa Law Center

The office of United States Senator George LeMieux, along with the Peter G. Peterson Foundation and the Concord Coalition, will engage in a timely and educational discussion about possible solutions to America's long term budget challenges titled "The Fiscal Solutions Forum." Participants will hear from Senator LeMieux and non-partisan federal budget experts including former U.S. Comptroller General David M. Walker (currently the CEO of the Peterson Foundation) and Concord Coalition Executive Director Robert L. Bixby.

These events are free and open to the public.

The panel of nationally recognized experts will outline the magnitude of the fiscal challenge, explain the consequences of doing nothing and describe a range of realistic solutions. They will also answer questions from the audience.

Orlando Location Details: University of Central Florida, Executive Development Center on Pine Street at Orange Avenue. Event will be held in the Auditorium.

Tampa Location Details: Stetson University Tampa Law Center. 1700 North Tampa Street, Tampa. Event will be held in the Smith Courtroom.

For more information visit <http://LeMieux.senate.gov>.

This event is free and open to the public. Seating is limited. Please RSVP to rsvpevent@lemieux.senate.gov. For additional information, please call Christa Bailey-Allen at (407) 254-2573 or toll free in Florida (866) 630-7106.